Service Provision and Delivery time

We are currently into general building maintenance, procurement and distribution of a wide range of products. Fajita Trading is a flexible and viable company that can provide goods and services tailor made for the client, as different clients have different needs. We seek to be a reliable supplier of all goods and services that are client specific. We have a commitment to excellent service delivery and put clients first. Our service is on point, as time and quality is emphasized by the Managing director who has excellent marketing and public relations skills attained through years in the industry.

Company Reputation

We have efficiently delivered products and services to various private and public institutions such as the Zimbabwe International Trade Fair Company, the City of Bulawayo,ORAP, Municipality of Victoria Falls and many other enterprises.

Employee Training and Education

Fajita Trading makes it a point that its employees are aware of the importance of service delivery through refresher workshops. Fajita Enterprises encourages and assists its employees in skills development to improve service delivery for the company as well as to empower and develop individuals at personal level. Employees are trained on the necessity of good communication skills and how this has a direct bearing on the company's operations.

Competetive Strategies

We have adopted a blend between the cost leadership and the focus strategy. The directors have identified various suppliers that are cheaper but not necessarily compromising on the quality of the final product, furthermore they have carefully chosen this target market and will now only serve the selected organisations which would not give them problems in repaying. They have since identified the desirable organizations based on their experiences in the past year and are now serving these organizations, a situation which should improve cashflow position.

SUPPLIERS

We have trade and discount arrangements with local and international suppliers

CUSTOMERS

We have a large range of clients ranging from individuals to large organisations. Our services are tailor made to suit the needs of any and all clients

DISTRIBUTION & SELLING TERMS

Our payment terms can be negotiated with the client upon receiving of the purchase order. Depending on the order size and the goods/services requested we strive to deliver in 7 business days.
